

Directly responsible to the Director.

The Deputy Director - Operations is responsible for:

- Formulating and implementing policies, procedures, and programs pertaining to Human Resources, Business Technology Support, Materials & Research, Operations, Construction and the 8 Districts.
- Defining and recommending legislative needs.
- Periodic review of assigned responsibilities and initiating modifications when indicated.
- Helping establish and maintain compliance with Departmental operating instructions, policies and procedures.
- Promoting good public relations.
- Administration and development of state, county and municipal liaison directed toward an integrated system of public roads throughout Nebraska.
- Providing public information services and internal support services.
- Providing representation on various committees as designated by the Director. This includes serving as the State's Chief Engineer and serving on various standing committees of AASHTO.
- Coordinate and approve appropriate strategies to improve performance measures.